

Get into Electrical Installation

with The Prince's Trust

In partnership with Scottish Electrical Charitable Training Trust, SELECT and Edinburgh College.

The Prince's Trust are offering a free 6 week training course at Edinburgh College, Midlothian campus, Dalkeith, which gives you training and work experience in the Electrical industry.

If you are 16-25, unemployed and interested in the Electrical Installation Industry, join our free training programme where you can get:

- ➔ An introduction to the Electrical Installation sector
- ➔ Experience in a variety of skills such as hand skills and wiring skills
- ➔ Gain ECS (Electrotechnical Certification Scheme) pre-apprenticeship card.
- ➔ Employability skill training to improve communication, reliability, team work and CV/Interview skills
- ➔ A work experience placement with a Scottish electrical contractor
- ➔ A final celebration event where young people graduate from the programme (all employers, work placement providers and key stakeholders from the industry will be invited)
- ➔ Six-months progression support from volunteer mentors at The Prince's Trust to help young people move into employment or further training
